An Aransas
Pathways Venue

*HAVING A GREAT TIME
DISCOVERING THE HISTORY OF ARANSAS COUNTY...*

....WISH YOU WERE HERE!

COME VISIT US!

The History Center for Aransas County is housed in the Bruhl-Paul-Johnson home, a Queen Anne Victorian home set in the Live Oak Heights subdivision in an "Old Rockport" neighborhood near downtown. Situated in a garden of native Texas plants, the Wildscape is evocative of another time in history, an opportunity to wander among plants and "Doc" Bruhl's Herb Garden or relax on benches among Live Oaks and watch migrating hummingbirds or other wildlife.

The History Center exhibits compelling stories of the families and events of the area. Past exhibits focused on Aransas County's role in Texas History, the local art colony, birding and ecology. Interviews, videos, and other multi-media are shown on TV monitors and tablets. Photographs, artifacts and memorabilia represent those citizens who have helped make our community special. Experts in the field offer programs, which extend topics of each exhibit.

Join us for these programs:

- Plant Exchange – 2nd Saturday of each month 10-12noon
- Exhibit Programs - Sunday at 2pm (see website for schedule)
- History Cruises - periodically scheduled throughout the year.
- Also, please note the new benefits you will receive with your membership at the $150.00 level or higher.

JOIN THE FUN, BECOME A MEMBER AND VOLUNTEER!

Our Members are an important part of our organization, supporting research, preservation, education, gardening, fund-raising and community involvement. They provide ideas and suggestions for exhibit topics, donate family and Aransas County artifacts to our Curations Center, and volunteer as Docents. We could not accomplish our goals without our volunteers. Being a member is a chance to learn more about local history, while having fun and making a difference in Aransas County.
